JUDGING

1. RSMCA has the sole authority for granting the scholarship awards. Scholarship recipients are selected on the basis of academic performance, faculty recommendation, extracurricular activities, employment activities, employment experience, and a demonstrated interest in pursuing a productive career. The Association reserves the right to delegate the choice of award winners to the Selection Committee.
2. The Selection Committee shall be composed of a minimum of three persons solicited from outside the roofing industry with no member having knowledge of any of the applicants. Members of the Selection Committee shall be clergy, educators and or business persons not involved in the roofing industry. Selection Committee members shall be named no less than 30 days prior to the deadline for entries.
3. All applicants selected as finalists may be subject to a personal interview with representatives of the Selection Committee.
4. For continuation of a scholarship, recipients will be required to provide indications of continued enrollment and good standing in a college program leading to a degree. Grade transcripts must be forwarded to RSMCA at the conclusion of each academic period.

All selections are final. All applications and attachments become property of RSMCA and will not be returned.
